

The Honorable Lauren King

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Plaintiff,
v.
JAMES BENECKE,
Defendant.

| NO. CR23-108 LK

[PROPOSED]

This matter, having come to the Court's attention on the Stipulation for Entry of a Discovery Protective Order submitted by the United States of America and Defendant JAMES BENECKE, and the Court, having considered the stipulated motion, and being fully advised in this matter, hereby enters the following PROTECTIVE ORDER:

1. Protected Material

The following are deemed Protected Material: child forensic interview of Minor Victim 1 and body worn videos that capture Minor Victim 1's interview. The United States will make available copies of the Protected Material, including those filed under seal, to defense counsel to comply with the government's discovery obligations. Possession of copies of the Protected Material is limited to the attorneys of record, and investigators, paralegals, law clerks, experts, and assistants for the attorney of record (hereinafter collectively referred to as members of the defense team).

DISCOVERY PROTECTIVE ORDER - 1
United States v. James Benecke, CR23-108 LK

UNITED STATES ATTORNEY
700 STEWART STREET, SUITE 5220
SEATTLE, WA 98101
(206) 553-7970

1 2. Scope of Review of Protected Material

2 Defense attorney of record and members of the defense team may display and 3 review the Protected Material with the Defendant. The defense may share a copy of the 4 protected materials with the defendant. The defense agrees that the materials will not be 5 shared with anyone else beyond the defense team and the defendant. After reviewing the 6 protected materials and consulting defense counsel regarding the material, the defendant
7 agrees to delete the protected material. The defendant further agrees not to disseminate the protected material to anyone without prior approval of the court.

8 3. Consent to Terms of Protective Order

9 The attorney of record for the Defendant is required, prior to disseminating any 10 copies of the Protected Material to permitted recipients, such as other members of the 11 defense team, to provide a copy of this Protective Order to those permitted recipients, and 12 to obtain the written consent by those recipients of the terms and conditions of this 13 Protective Order. Such written consent shall not, however, be required with respect to 14 members of the defense team who are employed by the same office as the attorneys of 15 record; in such case, it shall be sufficient for the attorneys of record to provide a copy of 16 this Protective Order to such other members of the defense team and to remind them of 17 their obligations under the Order. The written consent need not be disclosed or produced 18 to the United States unless requested by the United States Attorney's Office for the Western District of Washington and ordered by the Court.

19 4. Parties' Reciprocal Discovery Obligations

20 Nothing in this order should be construed as imposing any discovery obligations 21 on the government or the defendant that are different from those imposed by case law and 22 Rule 16 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, and the Local Criminal Rules.

23 5. Filing of Protected Material

24 Any Protected Material that is filed with the Court in connection with pre-trial
25 motions, trial, sentencing, or other matter before this Court, shall be filed under seal and 26 shall remain sealed until otherwise ordered by this Court. This does not entitle either 27 party to seal their filings as a matter of course. The parties are required to comply in all respects to the relevant local and federal rules of criminal procedure pertaining to the sealing of court documents.

6. Nontermination

The provisions of this Order shall not terminate at the conclusion of this prosecution. The provisions of this Order shall terminate only by court order.

7. Violation of Protective Order

The defendant is on notice that should he violate the terms of this protection order, the United States reserves the right to seek appropriate relief from the Court.

DATED this 11th day of March 2024.
